

_Pole Mounting

The installation of the antenna is performed on a special facility called the antenna pole. The pole is used for strong antenna tightening at the installation site. Poles might differ depending on the installation requirements.